We agree that you should honor CAVATA's request for a copy of your basic debriefing report on LAECHERT. When you inform them that she has been transferred to another Western service, we would appreciate your asking permission to give that service the original documents. Under the circumstances, it would seem far more logical that UPSWING should have the originals, CAVATA copies. Yet if CAVATA considers that they are their property we do not think it advisable to press our request.
